

Two Sons in the Vineyard

Action · Lectionary 26 · Season After Pentecost · 1st/2nd
Matthew 21:23-32

This Sunday, we learned about the two sons in the Vineyard in Matthew 21:23-32. As a family, read this passage together!

- WHAT'S HAPPENING?: The color for the Season after Pentecost is green: the color of growth. IN this story, the vineyard needs help from the sons to grow and prosper. The Season after Pentecost is a great time to discuss church community, what it means for a church to grow, and what goes on in life of a church.
- QUESTION OF THE DAY: What did each son tell his father? What did each son do? Who asks you to help at home? What do you say? Why do you think Jesus told this story? If you were one of the chief priests. How would you have felt? Why?
- BIBLE BIT: Vineyards were essential to biblical communities because fresh water was hard to come by. During the era of Roman occupation, the average family consumed 92 gallons of wine per year!
